

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, December 5. 1717.

London, December 5.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 11.

Naples, November 9.

THE Viceroy has sent out Orders to advertise all the Spaniards that are in the Countries under his Dominion, and are out of Employ, that they go to Vicana in 50 Days time, and present themselves to the Regent of the Council of Sardinia, where they shall receive their Expeditions to pass into Hungary, and Money necessary for the Expence of their Journey. They are promis'd also, that when they arrive in that Country, Houses and Land for them to cultivate shall be given them gratis, and they shall enjoy them 13 Years free from all Manner of Taxes. In the mean time, several Spanish soldiers, and even some Germans, have deserted out of the Garrisons of Gaeta and Baya, upon the Report that they were to be sent to Hungary, being inform'd of the Fatigues of the Journey, and what other Troops have suffer'd there. Those who are new rais'd, have begun to desile towards Manfredonia, to be embark'd and conducted to Fiume, from whence they will continue their Road by Land, to join the Regiment of Marullo, which is much diminished. The Gallies of this Squadron have embark'd 700 Men, who are to serve for a Reinforcement to the Garrisons of the Places on the Coast of Tuscany, whither they also carry Ammunition and Provisions. They were to have sail'd the 7th, but the bad Weather hinder'd them. The Emperour has granted the Title of Prince to Don Joseph Caraccioli, and assign'd him 25000 Ducas, payable in three Years, in Consideration of the Services he has render'd to the House of Austria; and moreover his Imperial Majesty has given him a Place of Regent, or Counsellour of Sword, in the Collateral.

Rome, Nov. 16. The Princes of Bavaria, who are in the Country near Frascati, magnificently treat many Persons of Quality. The Sieur Falconieri, Gouvernor of this City, having Yesterday sent the Pope a great Regale of all Sorts of Refreshments, his Holiness sent the greatest part of them to those two Princes. Cardinal Spinola San Cesareo, had a long Audience of the Pope on the 12th, to whom he gave an Account of divers Affairs which concern his Office of Chamberlain of the Holy Church, and the Means of raising the Sums that are wanted, for furnishing the great Succours which have been promis'd for the Contination of the War against the Turks, both by Sea and Land.

From the Hague Courant, dated Dec. 3.

Bilgrade, Nov. 12. The Imperial Detachments that were sent to Zwornick, are again return'd back, having found the March, thro' the badness of the Roads and the Snows which have already cover'd the Mountains, impracticable. But another Detachment will be sent towards Semendria, to be quarter'd this Winter there and thereabouts, & also along the Morava.

From the Hague Courant, dated Dec. 6.

Paris, Nov. 24. The Electoral Prince of Savoy was Yesterday at Mala, in the Jesuites Church, & openly Communicant.

Schaffhausen, Nov. 24. The Affair with the Abbot of St. Gall, is at present in a good way, and that Prelate begins to think seriously of an Accommodation. To this purpose, he wrote some time ago to the Cantons of Zurich and Bern, to name a Place of Treaty, and to chuse Deputies to enter into Conference with his, for adjusting the Differences between them. The Canton of Bern, which seems to have that Accommodation most at Heart, has communicated the Letter received from the said Abbot, to the Canton of Zurich, desiring them to name immediately the Time and Place of the Conference. But the Canton of Zurich has desir'd of those of Bern, to hold previously a Conference between the two Cantons, to concert Matters, and remove Difficulties. But the Bernois have rejected that dilatory Way, and have written a new, to represent to the Zurichers, that such Conferences tend only to lose time, which is too precious not to be made use of in the present Conjuncture of Affairs, and earnestly press them to proceed immediately to the naming of a Time and Place for holding the said Conferences. 'Tis not doubted that the Canton of Zurich will acquiesce in these repeated Representations, and that this knotty Affair will be speedily terminated, provided the Abbot of St. Gall be as sincere as he seems to be.

The Secretary of Zurich, who was dispatch'd some Months ago to the King of Sicily, with a Letter to that Prince from the Evangelical Cantons, in Favour of the City of Geneva, is return'd with an Answer from his Majesty to that of the Cantons. It seems, by certain Expressions which was made use of by the Secretary, at the Delivery of the Letter to the Cantons, that his Conduct was not agreeable to the King.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 11.

Brussels, Dec. 2. The Decree of the Council of Brabant, to which there was great Opposition on the Part of the Nations, or the third Estate of this City, imports, That upon the Refusal their Deans had made of granting the ordinary Subsidy, of taking the Oath according to the Forms lately regulated, and to give their Consent to the Levy of the twentieth Penny, the Council have, in the Name of the Emperour, authoris'd the Magistrates, and the Grand Council of this City, to regulate this Affair, provisionally, with the Consent of the Clergy and the Nobility. But the Magistrates having propos'd the Registering of this Decree, met with Opposition to it from several of the Assembly, and it was carried by Plurality of Voices, that the Burghers being the Third Estate, no new Impositions could be establish'd without their Consent. The Affair was again debated the 27th, and it was resolv'd, that the Impost call'd the Four Species should be provisionally agreed to, and that Remonstrances should be made upon the Twentieth Penny, and the other Articles.

From the Paris News Letter.

Paris, Dec. 11. A Muscovite Lord is arrived in this City, who comes in Quality of Ambassador from the Czar. The Report which was spread, that the Regiment of Navarre had revolted against their Officers, and deserted into Switzerland, is entirely false, and seems to have been invented by evil designing Persons.
